

I Corinthians 13:1-13

Love

1 If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. [Due September 20, 2023]

2 If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. [Due October 4, 2023]

3 If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames, but have not love, I gain nothing. [Due October 18, 2023]

4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. [Due November 1, 2023]

5 It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. [Due November 15, 2023]

6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. [Due December 13, 2023]

7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. [Due January 17, 2024]

8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. [Due January 31, 2024]

9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part, [Due February 14, 2024]

10 but when perfection comes, the imperfect disappears. [Due February 28, 2024]

11 When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me. [Due March 13, 2024]

12 Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. [Due April 3, 2024]

13 And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love. [Due April 17, 2024]
